

Instrument of Delegation

Power to extend the deadline for enrolment as a student-at-law

Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014

The Legal Profession Admission Board of New South Wales (the Board) authorises the relevant body or position holder to exercise the powers of the Board specified in Schedule 1, subject to any conditions (if any) set out in this Instrument of Delegation.

This delegation is made pursuant to section 20A of the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014.

Schedule 1

Officers, Committee or Sub Committee of the Board	Powers, Function, Authorities, Duties	Conditions
Executive Officer (EO) or a person acting in the position of Executive Officer	Relax the deadlines in Rule 59 of the NSW Admission Board Rules 2015	Subject to any guidelines published by the Board and/or the Examinations Committee

The Board resolved to make this delegation on 9 October 2024 and the authority given in this Instrument is effective from the date of this Instrument and continues until the delegation is revoked.

The Honourable Justice Payne
Presiding Member
9 October 2024

Explanatory note

Rule 58 provides that a student-at-law cannot sit for the Board's first subject unless they have registered by a certain date. This delegation permits the Executive Officer to relax that Rule in appropriate cases.
