

NSW Admission Board Sixth Amendment Rule 2025

under the

Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014

The Legal Profession Admission Board made the following rule under the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 on 19 August 2025.

Jerry Riznyczok

Executive Officer of the Board

Explanatory note

The object of this rule is to accommodate the new process that will be introduced later in 2025 that will allow for most of the Board's applications to be made online instead of by prescribed paper forms.

1 Name of Rule

This Rule is the NSW Admission Board Sixth Amendment Rule 2025.

2 Commencement

This Rule commences on its publication in the New South Wales Government Gazette.

3 Amendment of NSW Admission Board Rules

(1) Rule 116

Omit the current rule and replace with the following:

116 Forms and Online lodgment

- (1) Where these Rules provide that an application shall be in a particular form, the form referred to is to be published on the Board's website.
- (2) Where the Executive Officer has made provision for a Form to be available to be lodged online, any application lodged in accordance with that online process shall be deemed sufficient compliance with the requirements for lodging the relevant prescribed form, provided that:

- (a) any requirement that specified information or a statutory declaration be included in, attached to or furnished with the prescribed form, has been complied with during that online process; and
 - (b) any prescribed fee has been paid, or suitable arrangements have been made with the Executive Officer for payment.
- (3) Where a form requires the original of a document to be provided, the application is not duly completed until the original is provided to the Executive Officer.
