

Instrument of Delegation

Declaration of early assessment of suitability for a compliance certificate

Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014

The Legal Profession Admission Board of New South Wales (the Board) authorise the Executive Officer, or a person acting in the position of Executive Officer, to declare, under section 21 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (NSW), that matters disclosed by the applicant will not, without more, adversely affect an assessment as to whether the applicant is fit and proper to be admitted, where the applicant has made a minor disclosure, subject to the conditions set out in Schedule 1 to this Instrument of Delegation.

This delegation is made pursuant to section 20A of the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014.

Schedule 1

Officers, Committee or Sub Committee of the Board	Powers, Function, Authorities, Duties	Conditions
Executive Officer, or a person acting in the position of Executive Officer (EO).	Declare that matters disclosed by the applicant will not, without more, adversely affect an assessment as to whether the applicant is fit and proper to be admitted, where the applicant has made a minor disclosure.	Before exercising the delegation, the EO needs to be satisfied that the person: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. has lodged an application under section 21 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (NSW),2. the disclosure has been assessed as minor by at least two officers of the Board, in accordance with the Board's 'Directive on the Assessment of Disclosures' (as in force at the time), and3. where the EO has any doubt about any of the above matters, the EO will refer the s21 application to the Board for determination.

The Authority given in this Instrument of Delegation continues until notice of cancellation is received from the Board at that time.

This Instrument of Delegation revokes any previous delegation referred to in Schedule 1 by any current Instrument of Delegation.
